The second team was made up of 5th class pupils including Peter Farrell, Síomha Perill, Sarah O'Donnell and James O'Sullivan. ### Indoor Camogie 2nd Round

On Wednesday 31st January, the girls in 3rd – 5th from Crusheen National School participated in the 2nd round of the indoor competition. The completion took place in Ennis National School. Firstly we played Ennis National. We started with some great goals from Grace Gleeson. At half time we were in control with score of 3:0. As full time approached Caoilfhionn Perill and Aine Sheedy hit the net to secure a victory for us. With a quick break we hurried back out on to the court for one last game. If we won this game against Newmarket we would be through to the final. The girls worked hard and were awarded with an excellent goal from Grace Gleeson. We were exhausted at half time but kept pushing and another two goals by Grace Gleeson secured us the victory. The team on the day was Keelin Forde, who made sure no other team could score, Síomha Perill and Aimee Colleran who patrolled the defence, Grace Gleeson and Caoilfhionn Perill who made some breathtaking tackles, Sarah O'Donnell and Courtney White Kelly who played to their best ability. Our subs who provided some goals on the day were Aine

Sheedy, Clara Butler, Cora Houlihan, Lucy Keane, Lelia Ryan
