Visit to Tobar Bhríde

On Tuesday, 9th April, we went to Tobar Bhríde also called St. Brigid's Well in Cappafean. Eddie Lenihan came with us. The well is a very sacred place. Once, an old man who was blind and dying of back pain came to the well and slept there. In the morning he woke up as fit as a fiddle and in all the excitement of having his sight restored and standing up straight without enduring back pain, he left his walking stick at the well. Now there is a sycamore tree growing right where he left his stick.
