40th Anniverary

This week Crusheen National School has been celebrating its opening 40 years ago. The pupils created and painted banners for their class rooms. During the week pupils have been learning about the history of the school. On Thursday our past Principal Mr Gerry Kearney visited the school and gave the pupils a presentation detailing his recollection of his time as Principal of Crusheen National School. Mrs. Marjorie Molloy and Mrs. Breda Galvin who taught in the school were also our special guests. The pupils enjoyed listening, learning and asking questions about the 40 years of the school. There was lots of information gathered from old rolla books to old photos of staff and pupils. Thank you to all for a lovely occasion.
